RESOLUTION

Supporting the goals and ideals of a National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims.

Whereas the death of a child is a devastating experience, and the murder of a child is exceptionally difficult;

Whereas Parents of Murdered Children, Inc. (commonly known as POMC) helps families of murder victims cope with grief through a variety of support services, including counseling, crisis intervention, professional referrals, and assistance in dealing with the criminal justice system;

Whereas POMC was formed in 1978 by Robert and Charlotte
Hullinger after the tragic murder of their daughter, Lisa, on September 25 of that year;

Whereas POMC has grown from only 5 parents at the first meeting of the organization in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1978, to over 100,000 members in more than 300 chapters worldwide;

Whereas POMC membership is open to anyone who has suffered the murder of a loved one, and to professionals who are in frequent contact with survivors of murder victims;

Whereas POMC provides comfort and vital, ongoing assistance to countless loved ones of murder victims;

Whereas POMC helps guide families of murder victims through the process of pursuing justice in the criminal justice system, which can be an overwhelming experience for grieving loved ones;

Whereas POMC has designated September 25 of each year as a National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims; and

Whereas the designation of a National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims provides an opportunity for the people of the United States to honor the memories of murder victims: Now, therefore, be it
